themselves by reporting the same to
THE HERALD. 32-4f

Mr. A. P. Taylor, our efficient deputy Circuit Court Clerk, will at the close of the present term of Court resign his position to take charge of the Adamsburg school. Mr. E. M. Morton, son of Mr. L. C. Morton, of Center-town, will take Mr. Taylor's place as deputy clerk.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage on the 29th inst., of Mr. Herbert Sanders, formerly a well-known citizen of this place, to Miss Anna Ellen Patterson, daughter of Dr. B. N. Patterson, of McNairy.
The marriage will occur at the Presbyterian church in McNairy at 11 o'clock a. m.

The Hartford and Beaver Dam baseball teams will cross bats on the Hartford baseball grounds, Saturday, August 24th, for the championship of the county. The clubs are composed of some of the best amateur players in the Green River country and it will be an interesting contest. All lovers of the game should not fail to see it.

Mr. Birch Shields and Miss Maggie Cox will be married at the residence of the bride, one mile north of Select, tomorrow, the 23d inst. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. N. Jarman.
These are two popular young people and THE HERALD joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

It is to be regretted that Hartford's good name should be marred by the incident that transpired at the Methodist church Sunday night. Some young fellows beat one another on mischief enjoying the sermon, acted in a most disgraceful manner. The services were interrupted to such an extent that Bro. Patter, after once rebuking them, was compelled to discontinue his sermon before finishing.

Mr. J. H. B. Carson and Miss Annie Bean, of this place, surprised their friends here Monday by dropping into the post office an invitation from Rev.

G. J. Bean, to be present on the 27th inst at the marriage of his daughter Annie to Mr. Henry Carson. The young people had long been intimate friends but had so carefully concealed their matrimonial intentions that not even their best friends were into the secret. The surprise, however, comes as a most pleasant one, for there have never been in Hartford two young people who were more universally popular. Mr. Carson is the head of the well known firm of Carson & Co., general merchants here, and enjoys most fully the confidence and esteem of the business and social community.
Miss Bean is the youngest daughter of Rev. G. J. Bean and is one of the loveliest and most cultivated young women ever reared in Hartford. The wedding will be very quiet, only a few friends having been invited, and the young people will leave at once for an extended visit to Cincinnati and the Eastern cities.

Owing to an unavoidable accident, Prof.
J. H. Conder, of Indiana, has resigned his position as Vice President and teacher in the Beaver Dam Seminary. Prof. John B. Taylor, a graduate of the Mitchell Normal College, Mitchell, Indiana, has been selected to fill the vacancy. Prof. Taylor being a home man and his qualifications and fitness being so well and favorably known, we refrain from any further eulogistic remarks than to congratulate the trustees and patrons in securing the services of so efficient a teacher.

TEACHERS IN COUNCIL.

HAD AN INTERESTING SESSION AT BEAVER DAM.A Large Number in Attendance and Good Interest Shown
---Important Subjects
Ablly Discussed.

PROF. RHODS' EXCELLENT TALKS

Ohio County Teachers' Institute convened in School Hall at Beaver Dam, Ky., August 12. The house was called to order by Supt. Z. H. Shultz. After invocation by Rev. J. N. Jarman, the welcome address by Prof. E. R. Ray and response by J. D. Hocker, permanent organization was effected, and the following officers elected: Z. H.
Shultz, Chairman; Laura Reid, Secretary, and L. L. Stewart, Assistant Secretary.

Some of the aims of the Institute work were ably discussed by the Instructor, Prof. Rhoads. The chief aim is to better prepare the teacher for his work.

The Institute took recess and 100 teachers were enrolled. Institute adjourned until 1:15.

At 1:15 the house was called to order by Chairman Shultz. Paper—"What are the ends to be obtained in management," by Miss Dania Carter. She was followed by Ira Petty, who thinks the great end of school management is to make men and women out of boys and girls. G. W. Miller thinks that one learns to govern by being governed.

A motion was then made by A. H.
Ross that those members of the Institute who are delegates to the Davies County Baptist Association be excused for the remainder of the session. Motion carried.

"Some Phases of the Philosophy of Education" by Prof. Rhoads.

Common and Decimal fractions were commonly discussed by J. L. Elmore and his class. L. C. M. and G. C. D. were discussed by L. L. Stewart and his class. Institute adjourned to meet at 8:30 o'clock next night.

At 8:30 the house was called to order by Chairman Shultz. Prof. Ray made a splendid talk on "Education as a Growth." Next a recitation by Elmo Williams was rendered. Institute adjourned to meet Tuesday, August 13, 1895.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1895.

Institute convened in School Hall pursuant to adjournment. House called to order by Chairman Shultz.

Song, "Throw out the Line," by teachers with Mrs. Ella Gray at the organ. Devotional exercises conducted by I. C. Hocker. Lesson, Luke 12th chapter. Another song, "Pass Along the Invitation," after which roll was called; teachers present, 99.

Minutes of the previous meeting read and with one exception were approved.

Habit in education and its limitation was discussed by Prof. Rhoads. He says, "In primary education, to learn correct habits is better than any acquired knowledge."

Attention—Paper by Miss Mollie Ferguson. "Never attempt to secure attention by threats or hard measures.
School work must be made attractive if we wish to gain attention." Discussion by J. L. Brown and C. E. Ighehart. Mr.
Ighehart thinks that no one can gain attention by demanding it. Recess.

During recess we were entertained with instrumental music by Miss Attie Austin. After recess Mr. Boaz, representing Southern School, addressed the Institute in the interest of his paper, "The Popular Educator," and Mr. Elmo Williams the Teachers' Institute, spoke in the interest of their paper. Prof.
Ray being absent Prof. Rhoads, in his own way, discussed the subject, "How to develop the idea of numbers."

"Moral Training, Importance and Methods," by Prof. Ray, was next.
Among the good things he said was,
"Moral training is of the most vital importance inasmuch as it has to do with the immortal part of man." Noon.

At 1:15 house called to order by Z. H.
Shultz. Song with Miss Daisy Stevens at the organ. "Reading Circle Work," by Prof. Rhoads. Supt. Shultz was called to tell how many teachers he taught to the Reading Circle in the county last year. He reported 100 members and 78 passed examination.

"How to secure regular attendance" was then taken up and ably discussed by R. C. Farrington and A. W. Teel. Recess during which we were furnished with instrumental music by Misses Sallie Coleman, Attie Austin, Virgie Hocker and Bessie Williams. After recess a good paper on the value and method in Geography was read by Miss Lula Cox. Discussion by L. W. God-sey, A. S. Bennett and F. L. Sanderfer.

Instructor Rhoads' talk, "Words, General," was as are all his talks, highly appreciated by all present. The next on programme, "Penmanship and Drawing," was discussed by A. P. Thomas, Miss Dora Gibson and C. H. Ellis.
Institute adjourned until 8 o'clock.

After being highly entertained by instrumental solo by Miss Clifflie Gray, duet by Misses Austin and Hocker, and a vocal solo by Miss Austin, came the debate. Subject: "Resolved, That we should have a Compulsory System of Education." Affirmative: Misses Maggie Williams, Dania Carter. Negative: C. M. Crowe, L. L. Stewart, Judges, R. P. Hocker, Anna Gregory and Prof. Rhoads. Some good things were said by both sides. Decision was rendered in favor of the negative. Between speeches we were highly entertained by instrumental solos by Miss Maud Monroe, and a vocal solo by Miss Daisy Stevens.

The Institute adjourned to meet at 8:15 Wednesday morning, August 14, 1895.

The following teachers are enrolled:
A. G. Teel, U. O. Barnett, C. D. Chick, B. D. Wells, J. W. O'Dell, A. S. Tanner, A. P. Thomas, J. C. Berry, J. B.

Tanner, A. M. Johnson, A. R. Ren-frow, Walter Rossen, Wm. Johnson, J.
D. Oliver, Elsie Kahn.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1895.

Institute opened with song, Miss Clifflie Gray organist. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. G.
Stewart. Song. Roll called. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. Suggestion made by U. C.
Barnett, that a critic be appointed each day. Mr. Barnett was appointed for that day. A motion was made by J. B.
Taylor, that we have the Institute News to be read every morning, but for the want of a second the motion was lost. Motion made by J. D. Hocker and seconded by J. E. Davidson that we have the News read every afternoon. Motion carried. J. D. Hocker and Mallie Ferguson were the editors appointed for Wednesday.

Prof. Rhoads made a talk on the "Compulsory system of education." "Some mistakes in the aim or purpose of common schools" by R. Foster was the first on programme. He being absent the discussion was engaged in by H. H.
Davis, W. M. Johnson and others.

"Kindergarten methods" by Maggie Williams was the next. The teachers should devote some time every day to Kindergarten work. Recess.

Composition, by W. Foster. Prof.
Rhoads asked for the definition of an idiom. None was given that suited him and the subject was left till afternoon.

The explanation of an idiom, by Prof. Rhoads was enjoyed by all. Language lessons was discussed by Prof.
Boaz. He thinks that language should be one of the first things taught to children. He was followed by Prof.
Rhoads who favors the introduction of Kindergarten methods in language lessons. Physiology and Hygiene was discussed by D. E. Miller in a very able and instructive manner. The discussion was continued by D. H. Godsey and J. C. Berry. Drs. S. D. Taylor and A. F. Stanley were called on and responded in very instructive talks.
Sense products by W. Foster, L. T.
Barnard and L. C. Hocker. Recess.

Supt. Shultz stated that those who wanted to join the Reading Circle could get Roark's Psychology and Smith's History by giving him their names. History class works by J. E.
Davidson. He had a very entertaining class. Civics was next discussed by L. W. Godsey, W. R. Carson and others.

The "Institute News" by J. D. Hocker and Mallie Ferguson was very good.
Critic's report, by U. C. Barnett. Mr.
Frost from Greensboro, Ind., spoke in the interest of the "Chauteauque combination drawing board and writing desk." Editors appointed for Thursday, C. M. Crowe and Anna Gregory. Adjourned till 8 p. m.

The night session was opened by highly appreciated music by Misses Anna McKenney, Attie and Sadie Anstin. Prof. Ray then introduced Prof.
A. C. Burton, of Vase Grove, who delivered an address on the subject "The heroes of three ages—the warrior, the statesman and the teacher." His address was highly applauded.

Instrumental Solo by Maud Monroe.
Prof. Rhoads then gave an interesting account of his "Denver trip." Adjourned till 8 a. m. Thursday.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1895.

Singing by choir, Mabelle Hocker, organist. Devotional exercises conducted by Prof. E. R. Ray. Lesson St. John 15th chapter. Song "Book of Agas." Roll called, showing 100 teachers present. Minutes of the previous day read, two corrections made and minutes adopted. Motion hour was next in order. A motion was made by D. H.
Godsey and seconded by C. M. Crowe to make Rev. W. G. Stewart an honorary member of this Institute. Motion carried and Bro. Stewart responded to the compliment in a very touching manner. He has been a teacher in Ohio county for 36 years. A motion was made that a committee on resolutions be appointed. Motion carried and committee appointed later in the day. "Some mistakes in teaching" was ably discussed by Maggie Williams.
She thinks Kentucky teachers are second to none in this country. The discussion of this subject was continued by S. C. Stevens, Ira Petty, L. M.
Sanderfer and J. D. Hocker. The following committee on resolutions was then appointed: C. M. Crowe, L. W.
Godsey, Elsie Kahn and Maud Reid.
Recess.

During recess we had some splendid music by Maud Monroe and others.
Reading by Miss Rachel Sanderfer who thinks to make it a success it must be made attractive. The subject was further discussed by Sallie Davidson, J.
Foster and Instructor Rhoads. Association work—The teachers of each magisterial district met and elected officers for the ensuing year. Noon.

The first on the programme was Grammar by J. B. Wilson. He proceeded in his own happy way to discuss this important subject. He was followed by J. B. Taylor, Nettie Rogers and Prof. Boaz. "How to grade the common schools," by Prof. Rhoads.

He thinks there is danger of grading too closely. Several teachers gave their experience in grading schools.
Quite a number of questions asked in regard to grading and all satisfactorily answered. Recess.

"Applying for a school" was ably discussed by C. M. Crowe. County and district libraries, was next on programme. T. P. Stum being absent, Maggie Williams proceeded to discuss the subject. She thinks if there is a class of people who need books it is the teachers. The subject was next taken up and discussed by Prof. E. R. Ray.
Some one asked about the programme for the night. Prof. Ray suggested that we have a night "free for all," the object of which is to learn to be more sociable. Adjourned till 8 p. m.

At the night session we were highly entertained by instrumental and vocal music by Messrs. Monroe, Austin, Hocker and others.

The declamations by W. R. Carson and U. C. Barnett and the melody by Prof. A. C. Burton were highly enjoyed. Adjourned till 8 a. m. Friday.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Last Thursday morning, the 15th inst., at 7 o'clock, Mr. Aaron Matthews died at the residence of his son, Heber Matthews, in Hartford. He had been ill for several months and the immediate cause of his death was paralysis and old age.

Mr. Matthews was born in Muhlen-berg county Ky., about four miles from where South Carrollton now stands, June 8, 1816, and was consequently in his 79th year at the time of his death.
When about four years of age he moved with his parents to Warren county, Ind., the journey being made with several other families, for fear of Indiana, which were quite plentiful at that time. He lived in Indiana until about 25 years ago, when he removed with his family back to Kentucky. He was married twice and the father of ten children, six by his first wife and four by his second. Four of his first wife's children are now living and one of his second at whose residence Mr. Matthews died. His last wife also survives him, and is in her 60th year.

Mr. Matthews was a man of some prominence in his younger days and filled several important official positions. He was noted for his strict honesty, tireless energy and firm convictions. He was a member of Hartford Baptist Church and died in the full realization of a christian's hope.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Bean, after which his remains were carried to Beaver Dam and from thence to Mt. Gilead Cemetery, near Booneville, Ind., where he was laid to rest by the side of his first wife, where also rest many relatives for generations back.

near the old farm where Mr. Matthews lived when young and it was his request that he be buried there.

A long useful life is ended, a kind father and husband has been gathered to his fathers, and he is sleeping beside the companions of younger days, where, as the inscription on his coffin plate said, he will "Rest in Peace" until the resurrection day.
